

Paul Mathieu

Lighting

The Paul Mathieu lighting collections include the 'Aria' and 'Aile' hand-cast bronzes and the 'Madeleine' and 'Luma' hand blown Murano lamps and chandeliers.

A delicate, honed aesthetic, combined with the choice of simple yet luxurious and beautifully crafted materials, gives these pieces a particular elegance that easily extends their historical origins into the present day. The exceptional application of sculptural form to functional objects has resulted in numerous awards. As the collection expands, so yet more iconic pieces emerge.

Paul Mathieu

Educated at prestigious art and design establishments in France and England, Mathieu's unique fluid style, and exceptional ability to create outstanding work using a wide range of both common and unusual materials, rapidly gained him a reputation that has consistently attracted the attention of preeminent design visionaries and collectors worldwide. He currently divides his time between New York, Aix-en-Provence, Udaipur and Murano.
